Z-Rewards is a way to reward users for performing certain actions within Dr.Chgman.com. Creating content for Dr.Chgman.com is it's own reward, your selfless distribution of your knowledge can save someone else the pain and suffering of figuring out challenges on their own. But, we think your participation and/or contribution is worth a little something more.

The more you participate and/or contribute to Dr.Chgman.com, the faster you'll be on your way to fabulous gifts and prizes. Details about those gifts and prizes will be published on Dr.Chgman.com soon.

Open question: should we consider creating some type of competition between all registered members (to collect as much Z-Rewards as possible) ... a kind of internet based game connected to your real world job?
