There are a number of ways to earn and accumulate Z-Rewards (and we change it periodically). You have to be a registered user and logged in to get Z-Rewards.

You earn Z-Rewards just for:

- registering.
- inviting friends.
- posting content.
- leaving a valid comment (that is, you don’t get points if your message is removed by an editor).
- participating in polls and voting.
- contributing Z-Mods (yet another topic coming up at Dr.Chgman.com).
- participating in beta testing of Z-Files.
- contributing articles that fit into the Z-Wiki.
- etc.

The amount of Z-Rewards will be expressed in so called "points", which you'll earn by being active on Dr.Chgman.com. Here is a sample of how this may be implemented (attention: we're still working on the actual implementation of this, so the amounts mentioned are still subject to change):

1. Registering > 50 points
2. Voting > 10 points
3. Commenting > 50 points
4. Submitting certain webforms > 25 points
5. Offering suggestions > 75 points
6. Submitting an invitation to someone for Dr.Chgman.com > 50 points
7. Accepted invitations by someone you invited > 50 points

Bottomline: Z-Rewards are to be considered as an incentive for users to participate and be active within Dr.Chgman.com.

To be complete: in certain cases you may also lose (part of your) Z-Rewards, e.g.:

- when you exchange your Z-Rewards to subscribe for selected products or services available at Dr.Chgman.com.
- you don't respect certain rules we try to enforce within Dr.Chgman.com, such as:
    - Obscene or off-color comments.
    - Personal attacks, insults, or threatening language.
    - Plagiarized material.

- if you fail to earn any Z-Rewards for 12 consecutive months, your Z-Rewards will expire.
