- ChangeMan ZMF Administrators.
- Release managers.
- Operations control.
- IT Auditors.

- Etc.

The available courses are organized in such a way that it's possible to select those courses that best fit the needs of each individual student. As an example, somebody who's involved in Operations control will most likely be interested in learning about all sorts of details related to ChangeMan ZMF's Xnode datasets, while a ChangeMan ZMF User doesn't even have to know about the existance of those datasets.
